Unified Champion Schools

With sports as the foundation, Special Olympics Unified Champion Schools bring together youth with and without intellectual disabilities to build inclusive communities, reduce bullying, and promote healthy activities. Students with all abilities will benefit from the following opportunities in a Unified Champion School:

Inclusive Youth Leadership:
Young people of all abilities become leaders and change makers in school communities.

Whole School Engagement:
Activities engage the full school community to promote inclusion and respect for all students.

Unified Sports®/Activities:
Students with and without disabilities train and compete together in sports year-round.

Fundraising: Students raise funds for Special Olympics to continue UCS and benefit local athletes. Elem: $250, MS: $750, HS: $1,500, College: $3,000.

Community Programs

Community Programs offer year-round training and competition sports for athletes and partners ages eight and older.

Join your community program during your school's off-season and after graduation!
